

Limosano RECORDS

There are two sources for online Italian records: FamilySearch's Historical Record Collections and The National Archives of Italy's Ancestors Portal. You need to search both. The chart below provides steps on how to locate records for each.

This information was prepared for: LIMOSANO, CAMPOBASSO, MOLISE

Notes:

1. You need a FamilySearch account to access their Historical Record Collections. Register Here for a free account.
2. For the Historical Record Collections, read their "Description" and "Learn More" information about each collection.
3. For the Ancestors Portal, read their Current News to find the records most recently added.
4. Even though records may not be available today, they be added tomorrow. You need to check back often.

#	For This Source	Check Here for Limosano Records
1	FamilySearch Historical Record Collections	Italy, Campobasso, Civil Registration (State Archive), 1809-1918 <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Click link above > then you will see search boxes. This means this is an Indexed collection. You could now begin your search. • However, you should first check to see if Limosano is included. While records for the province of Campobasso are, this does not mean records for the town of Limosano are. • On the Campobasso webpage, click Any > then type Limosano into the "Any Place" box and see if you get any results. • THERE ARE NO RECORDS found for Limosano. Check back often.
2	The National Archives of Italy Ancestors Portal	Find Names <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Click link above. Check to see if Campobasso is listed in the State Archives (Archivi di Stato). These are State Archives whose records have been added and are available online. • Campobasso IS LISTED.
